Master of Arts in Liberal Studies

The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) program is designed for students who possess a strong desire for intellectual growth and challenge and an interest in interdisciplinary research. It offers students individualized programs of graduate study that transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries and yet lie squarely within the venerable tradition of liberal education.

The MALS curriculum includes three sets of activities:

1. Students take a least three Great Ideas Seminars, in which they study the books, theories, and discoveries that have had the greatest impact on the humanities, the natural sciences, and the social sciences.
2. Students undertake an Interdisciplinary Concentration consisting of at least six courses spanning three different disciplines unified by a theme chosen by the student in consultation with an advisor.
3. Students complete a Capstone Project – either a Master's Thesis or a shorter Master's Essay – on a topic related to the unifying theme of their Interdisciplinary Concentration.

Unlike many graduate programs in Liberal Studies, which have no departmental “home,” the MALS program at FIU is housed in the Department of Philosophy, whose members (listed above) have responsibility for coordinating the program, teaching and arranging guest lectures for the Great Ideas Seminars, helping students develop their Interdisciplinary Concentrations, and ensuring that Capstone Projects are supervised by appropriate experts.

Degree Requirements

Thirty-three semester credit hours of course work and a cumulative GPA of 3.0 are required for the MALS degree.

Great Ideas Seminars*	9
Interdisciplinary Concentration*	18
Master's Essay or Master's Thesis	3 or 6

*Since 33 hours are required of all MALS students. Students who receive 3 hours for a Master's Essay instead of 6 hours for a Master's Thesis must complete either four Great Ideas Seminars (12 hours) or a 21 hour Interdisciplinary Concentration.

A prospective MALS student may have already completed some graduate level courses either at FIU or elsewhere. Such graduate work may count towards the MALS degree and in particular towards the student's Interdisciplinary Concentration if the following conditions are satisfied.

1. The student received a grade of “B” or better in those courses.
2. Those courses are approved by the student's advisor and the Graduate Program Director. To obtain such approval, the courses must be appropriately related to the theme unifying the student's Interdisciplinary Concentration.
3. No more than six graduate semester hours can be transferred from another university.

Admission Requirements

To be admitted into the MALS program, a student must:

1. Hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university;
2. Have a grade point average of 3.0 or better in upper-level work;
3. Obtain a combined score (verbal and quantitative) of 1000 or higher on the Graduate Record Exam (GRE);
4. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.3 overall on the IELTS is required; and
5. Submit a substantial writing sample that is judged by the MALS admissions committee to be of satisfactory quality.
