

Math Circle Problems for week 9

1. Given 6 points in general position and all segments among them colored in 2 colors. Show that there are at least 2 single-colored triangles.

2. Given  $n$  points in general position and all segments among them colored in 3 colors. What is the minimum number  $n$  such that there should be a single-colored triangle?