

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

B.A. ENV STUDIES

BA students must take at least four courses in an area of specialization. Two of the four courses must have an EVR prefix unless a minor in another department is used as a specialization. Minors that interface well with the BA in Environmental Studies and can be used as an area of specialization include International Relations, Geography, Political Science and Economics. Students can develop their own “custom-designed” specialization area in coordination with their advisor. The most important courses for each of the suggested areas of specialization are shown in BOLD.
