

Thomas B. Jelke Foundation Greek Leadership Scholarship

The Thomas B. Jelke Foundation Greek Leadership Scholarship was created to recognize and award an individual member of the Greek Community at Florida International University who exemplifies the finest qualities of fraternity. Winners of this award must display outstanding achievement in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service to the university and the community, and must demonstrate a deep understanding and commitment to living by the core values and principles of their fraternal organization. The scholarship award of $1000.00 will be applied to the winner's subsequent Fall semester at FIU.

Candidates must meet the following criteria:

- ◆ Must be a member in good standing of a registered social fraternity or sorority at Florida International University.
- ◆ Must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 at the time of application and the time of selection of the award.
- ◆ Must be a degree seeking student at Florida International University who has junior or senior standing.
- ◆ Must have an expected graduation date no earlier than December of the academic year following the academic year in which he/she applies for the scholarship.
- ◆ Must be involved as a leader in their fraternal organization and in at least one other organization on campus.
- ◆ Must be able to demonstrate an understanding of the values of his or her fraternal organization and how he or she lives by those values.

Procedure:

Candidates for the award must complete and submit the attached application to the Campus Life, GC 2240, no later than 5:00pm on Wednesday, February 15, 2006.

A selection committee made up of members of the FIU Student Affairs staff and the Thomas B. Jelke Foundation Board will review the applications and identify finalists for the award.

Members of the selection committee will interview all finalists. These interviews will take place the week of February 20, 2006.
