The College of Arts and Sciences furthers the study of fundamental intellectual disciplines and serves the University's other colleges and schools. The College grants Bachelor's, Master's, and Ph.D. degrees. In addition, the College serves students who need to complete general education and core curriculum requirements and other requirements in order to enroll in specific disciplines or professional programs.

The College is composed of 17 departments and several interdisciplinary programs.

Graduate Programs

The College has academic programs leading to Master's degrees in African-New World Studies, Asian Studies, biology, chemistry, comparative sociology, creative writing, economics, English, environmental studies, environmental and urban systems (offered jointly with the College of Engineering and Computing), forensic science, geosciences, history, international studies, Latin American and Caribbean Studies, liberal studies, linguistics, mathematical sciences, physics, political science, psychology, religious studies, Spanish, and statistics.

The College offers academic programs leading to the Ph.D. in biology, chemistry, economics, geosciences, history, international relations, physics, political science, psychology, comparative sociology, and Spanish.

Graduate Admission Requirements

The College's admission requirements as listed below are in addition to the University's graduate admission requirements. These are minimal requirements. Please consult the specific graduate program, which may have different requirements.

1. A 3.0 or higher GPA during the last two years as an upper division student and a minimum total score (quantitative plus verbal) of 1000 on the GRE for the Master's degree. A 3.0 or higher GPA and a GRE verbal and quantitative of 1120 or higher are required for the Ph.D. degree. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.3 overall on the IELTS is required.

2. The GRE or GPA stated above are only minimum requirements. All applications are reviewed by each program's Graduate Studies Admission Committee, which makes the final admissions recommendations. Since admission to the program is competitive, the committee's requirements are normally higher than the minimum aforementioned standards.

Note: The programs, policies, requirements, and regulations listed in this catalog are continually subject to review in order to serve the needs of the University's various publics and to respond to the mandates of the Florida Board of Education, or Board of Governors, and the Florida Legislature. Changes may be made without advance notice. Please refer to the General Information section for the University's policies, requirements, and regulations.

Interdisciplinary Courses

The College of Arts and Sciences has several interdisciplinary programs which are not based in a specific academic department. The courses offered by these programs, therefore, are not found in the departmental listings in the Catalogs, but are included here.
