The English Department offers three graduate degree programs: Creative Writing, Linguistics and Literature. The descriptions of the Creative Writing and the Linguistics programs can be found under their respective headings in this catalog.

Master of Arts in English

To be admitted into the Master's program in English, a student must meet the University's graduate admission requirements and have:

1. A bachelor's degree in English or a related field;
2. A minimum 3.0 undergraduate grade point average;
3. A combination of 1000 (verbal and quantitative) on the GRE;
4. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing

System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.3 overall on the IELTS is required.

5. Two letters of recommendation from undergraduate or graduate professors;

6. A personal essay; and

7. Those who might be chosen for teaching assistantships will be interviewed by at least one member of the committee.

Degree Requirements

The Master's degree program consists of 30 semester hours of course work at graduate level (course numbers 5000 or above) and a thesis (6 credits). A maximum of six graduate semester hours may be transferred into the program subject to the approval of the graduate committee.

Required Courses

ENG 5048	Literary Theory	3
LIT 5405	Literature, Language and Society	3

Electives: A maximum of 24 semester hours (5000 or 6000) level may be taken at either campus.

Thesis: LIT 6970 Master's Thesis 6

The student must complete a research thesis. The topic must be approved by the faculty member who will supervise the research, and then approved by the Graduate Committee. The thesis will be accepted only after being read and approved by a Reading Committee. An oral defense is required before the Reading Committee.

Below is a list of graduate courses that are offered by the English Department in addition to those offered in the Creative Writing and Linguistics programs. Graduate standing is required for admission into all graduate courses.
