Master of Public Administration

The Master of Public Administration prepares students for careers in public service and non-profit organizations. It also prepares students for private sector positions having significant contact with public organizations. The degree provides pre-service and mid-career students with an appropriate mix of technical and generalist skills needed for management and analytic positions in local, state, and federal government, as well as non-profit organizations. Students are given broad exposure to the field in the core and subsequently develop expertise within their areas of specialization. The degree also provides students with the necessary analytic and substantive background for successful pursuit of doctoral studies within the discipline. Graduates are well-prepared for positions as city manager, finance director, budget analyst, personnel director, special project coordinator and program analyst.

The MPA Program in Public Administration is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration. Accreditation by this agency ensures the student that the program has been reviewed and meets the national standards for graduate studies in the field.

Admission Requirements

Applicants to the Master of Public Administration (MPA) program must:

- Have earned a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution and
- Earn a GPA of 3.0 or better in all upper division course work and
- Obtain a letter of recommendation from a faculty member at their undergraduate institution or from a supervisor and
- Demonstrate graduate level writing competency by submitting an essay between 3 and 5 pages in length addressing personal and career goals.

An applicant who feels that the earned GPA is not indicative of his or her ability to be successful in a graduate degree program may also submit scores on the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) which will be taken into consideration by the admissions committee in its evaluation of the application.

Exceptions to the graduate admissions requirement

The MPA program offers certificate programs. In accordance with University policy, students with a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution and who have an undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or greater can be admitted to a public administration graduate certificate program, subject to the approval of the MPA program Director or designee. Students admitted to a certificate program who have completed 12 graduate certificate credits with a 3.25 or better GPA may be admitted to the MPA program, subject to the approval of the program Director or designee. The full 18 credits obtained in a MPA Graduate Certificate Program may be used to satisfy requirements of the MPA degree, provided the student is admitted to the MPA program prior to the completion of the final six graduate certificate credit hours required to obtain the certificate.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program requires 42 credit hours for all students not having a BPA from a public university in the State of Florida. Students having earned a BPA from a public university in the State of Florida will be waived from taking six elective credits. Core level waivers can only be approved by the Public Administration Program Director, the Dean of the School, or a designee.

Core Courses

The MPA core consists of the following eleven courses:

PAD 6053	Political, Social and Economic Context of Public Administration	3
PAD 6056	The Practice of Public Management	3
PAD 6227	Public Finance and the Budgetary Process	3
URS 6130	Human Resource Policy and Management	3
URS 6028	Policy Analysis and Planning	3
URS 6155	Quantitative Methods and Analysis	3
URS 6378	Leadership and Decision-making	3
PAD 6726	Applied Research Methods for Accountability in Public and Non-Profit Organizations (Prerequisite: URS 6155)	3
PAF 6206	Management of Non-Profit Organizations	3
PAF 6506	Financial Management in Public and Nonprofit Organizations (Prerequisite: PAD 6227)	3
PAF 6406	IT and E-Government	3

PAD 6053, URS 6155, and URS 6806, must be taken during the first 18 credit hours of course work.

URS 6155 is a prerequisite for URS 6806.

PAD 6056, The Practice of Public Management, is a capstone experience for the program and must be taken during the last semester of course work.

Electives (9)

Three (3) elective courses required.

Grading, Sequencing, and Substitution Policy

Students must maintain a 3.0 cumulative graduate GPA to graduate. A grade of 'C' or better is required for every core course. Note: A 'C-' is not acceptable.

The program reserves the right to withhold the awarding of credit for course work taken out of sequence and without appropriate prerequisites.

Students entering the MPA Program with a Bachelor of Public Administration or equivalent degree may elect to substitute PAD 6053 with a fifth specialization course or other elective.

Master of Health Services Administration/ Master of Public Administration Joint Degree Program

Professionals in Public Administration and in Health Services Administration have expressed a substantial need to better understand both fields. Health services account for the largest category of expenditures in local and state governments, resulting in the need for public administrators who also are familiar with Health Services Administration. The vast majority of health services are provided by non-profit or government owned entities, resulting in the need for health services administrators who understand government administration. The Joint MHPA/MPA Degree responds to these needs.

This degree is the result of a joint effort by the Graduate Program in Health Services Administration in the School of Public Health and the Graduate Program in Public Administration in the School of Policy and Management. Both programs are fully accredited.

The Graduate Program in Health Services Administration is accredited by the Accrediting Commission on Education for Health Services Administration (ACEHSA). The Graduate Program in Public Administration is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Administration (NASPAA). Accreditation by these agencies ensures the student that the programs have been reviewed and meet the national standards for graduate studies in these fields.

The Joint MHPA/MPA degree prepares students for careers in public service and non-profit organizations, including management careers in health services organizations. It also prepares students for private sector positions having significant contact with public organizations. The degree addresses the theories and issues of managing complex organizations in both public and private settings.

The program is organized to meet the needs of the working student. Many individuals enrolled are already employed in administrative rolls in government and health services delivery. While enhancing their career, they bring the value of their experience to the classroom.

Listed below are the courses and credits required for the joint degrees:

Health Services Administration Core MHPA Courses

Juris Doctor/Master of Public Administration Joint Degree Program

The faculties of the College of Law and the School of Policy and Management have approved a joint degree program culminating in both a Juris Doctor degree (J.D.), awarded by the College of Law, and a Master of Public Administration degree (M.P.A.), awarded by the School of Policy and Management. Under the joint degree program, a student can obtain both degrees in significantly less time than it would take to obtain both degrees if pursued consecutively. Essential criteria relating to the joint degree program are as follows:

1. Candidates for the program must meet the entrance requirements for and be accepted by both programs. Both programs must be informed by the student at the time of application to the second program that the student intends to pursue the joint degree.

2. The joint degree program is not open to students who have already earned one degree.

3. For law students, enrollment in the M.P.A. program is required no later than the completion of 63 credit hours in the J.D. program. For M.P.A. students, enrollment in the J.D. program is required no later than the third semester after beginning the M.P.A. program. A summer session is counted as half a semester.

4. A student must satisfy the curriculum requirements for each degree before either degree is awarded. The School of Policy and Management will allow 9 credit hours of College of Law courses, as approved by the M.P.A. Coordinator, in consultation with the Dean of the School of Policy and Management, to be credited toward both the M.P.A. and J.D. degrees.

5. Reciprocally, law students may receive 9 hours of credit toward the satisfaction of the J.D. degree for courses taken in the M.P.A. curriculum upon completion of the M.P.A. degree with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher.

6. A student accepted by both degree programs may begin studies in either the College of Law or the School of Policy and Management, but full-time law students must take the first two semesters of law study consecutively and part-time law students must take the first three semesters of law study consecutively. Students electing to begin study in one school under the joint degree program may enter the second school thereafter without once again qualifying for admission so long as they have notified the second school before the end of the first week of the first semester in the second school and are in good academic standing when studies commence in the second school.

7. A student enrolled in the joint degree program will not receive either degree until the student has satisfied all of the requirements for both degrees, or until the student has satisfied the requirements of one of the degrees as if the student had not been a joint degree candidate.

Doctor of Philosophy

The Doctor of Philosophy in Public Management (Ph.D.) is intended to prepare graduates for research and analytic positions in universities, public bureaucracies, and nonprofit organizations. Degree content provides a foundation for undertaking policy-oriented research with emphases on urban and comparative public management. Doctoral students will be expected to demonstrate the capacity for conducting this research through successful passing of coursework and comprehensive examinations, as well as the defense of dissertation.

Admission Requirements

Generally, applicants must have a Master's degree prior to program enrollment, though outstanding applicants may also be considered with only a baccalaureate degree. Admission is not restricted to students with prior course work in Public Administration and the Program encourages applicants with diverse academic backgrounds, with preference given to those with grounding in the policy or administrative sciences.

In order to be admitted to the Ph.D. program students must submit a complete University application and:

- Demonstrate excellence in prior academic work by an earned GPA of 3.5 or better in both the undergraduate degree and the graduate degree and
- Present official GRE scores, with a combined score of 1120 on the GRE's quantitative and verbal sections. A minimum of 500 on each of these components is required and
- Submit a written personal statement concerning the reasons for pursuing a Ph.D. in Public Management and

- Indicate a close fit in research interests with the Public Administration faculty, as shown in the personal statement required for admission and
- Provide a current resume and
- Submit three references using the Program's recommendation form and
- Provide writing samples

In addition, students must demonstrate knowledge of American political institutions and fundamentals of social research methods and microcomputers.

All students living within a 50-mile radius are strongly encouraged to interview with the Ph.D. Coordinator during the admissions process. Telephone interviews may be arranged for students living outside a 50-mile radius.

Foreign applicants must demonstrate proficiency in the English language by presenting a minimum score of a 100 on the iBT TOEFL (equivalent to 600 on the paper-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)). The admission process is competitive and the program considers all of the evidence in the application file in making its decision.

Meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee admission and applicants failing to meet the minimum requirements may be admitted based on other evidence of potential, such as prior research or senior executive status.

Admitted students may transfer a maximum of six semester credits (not included in another degree) from other institutions towards Ph.D. degree requirements. Admitted students must demonstrate competence in the following areas: descriptive statistics with regression, applied microeconomics and policy analysis, organization theory and design, social science research methods, personnel and workplace issues, and microcomputer literacy. The Program Coordinator may assign specific coursework to students with deficiencies in any of the above mentioned areas.

Financial Aid

The objective of financial aid is to provide direct assistance to those students who require financial assistance to complete their doctoral programs, and to enhance the reputation of the program by attracting an outstanding cadre of students.

To receive financial aid from University and Program sources, doctoral students must be enrolled full-time (9 semester hours during the term in which they receive financial aid). Students having graduate assistantships cannot hold another employment.

The exact amount of financial assistance depends upon funding provided by the University and the legislature. The current level of Program assistance is between $9,000 and $16,000 annually. Students on assistantships are eligible for tuition waivers. Assistantships do not cover additional student fees, such as health, parking, athletic fees, and per credit fees.

Program financial aid is awarded in one-year blocks, and is generally provided for up to three years of the student's doctoral study.

The University has a variety of other financial aid opportunities including graduate grants, scholarships, loans, work-study programs and targeted scholarships. Information on these and other opportunities are available through the University and College financial aid offices.

To apply for assistance, students should notify the Ph.D. Coordinator of their intent at the time of application. For matriculation fee waivers and University assistance, students must file the University's Financial Aid Form (FAF) and the other University aid documents. Information on the university procedures is available in the financial aid office of the College of Health and Urban Affairs and in the University's Financial Aid office.

Degree Requirements

To obtain the degree, admitted students must complete at least 69 semester hours beyond the Master's degree or its equivalent, including 45 semester hours of approved course work and 24 hours of dissertation work after admission to candidacy. In addition, there is a residency requirement of at least 18 semester hours in three consecutive semesters of study during the first year of enrollment in the Ph.D. Program and a minimum of six hours required in all subsequent semesters, as set forth in the Doctoral Program in Public Management Handbook.

Successful completion of course work and passing scores on the comprehensive examination are required before students can advance to candidacy for the Ph.D. and present a dissertation proposal. Students are advised to consult the doctoral program handbook for any additional information regarding benchmarks for student progress in grade point average, course completion, comprehensive examinations and dissertation work.

Program of Study

The Doctor of Philosophy in Public Management is a 69 semester hour program with seven required courses (21 semester hours), seven specialization elective courses (21 hours), a comprehensive examination (minimum of three semester hours), and dissertation (24 semester hours).

During the first semester of the program, students are required to select, with the assistance and approval of the Ph.D. Coordinator, an advisor who is a tenured faculty member in the program. By the end of the first year, students are required to develop a program of study with the assistance and approval of their advisor and the Program Coordinator.

Core Curriculum: (21)

PAD 7277	Public Administration and the American Political Economy	3
PAD 7155	Organizational Development and Change in Public and Nonprofit Organizations	3
PAD 7808	Economic Development and Urban Management	3
(Crosslisted with URS 5505 Economic Development and Urban Revitalization)
PAD 7865	Development Administration	3
(Crosslisted with PAD 6838 Development Administration)
IHS 6507	Qualitative Research Methods in Health and Urban Affairs	3
IHS 6509	Quantitative Research Analysis in Health and Urban Affairs I	3
IHS 6510	Quantitative Research Analysis for Health and Urban Affairs II	3

Specialization Courses: (21)

Students are required to take seven courses in an area of specialization to be designed with the advisor. Six of these courses must be at the 5000, 6000, or 7000 level and may be taken within the University. These specialization electives may also be especially designed courses developed in conjunction with the student's advisor and with approval by the Ph.D. committee. Specialization areas may include subfields within the discipline of public administration (human resource management; sub-national administration and policy, etc.) or may involve cognate disciplines (such as, health services administration; criminal justice administration; environmental management; etc.). At least three hours must be URS 7926 (Supervised Readings), taken in conjunction with comprehensive examination preparation.

In developing a specialization area, the student is expected to consult with his or her advisor (from within the public administration faculty). If students choose a specialization from a cognate area, they should, in conjunction with their public administration faculty advisor, identify a faculty member from the cognate discipline who will serve as the specialization faculty advisor. The specialization advisor, may also, upon approval of the Ph.D. committee, serve as the chairperson of the student's dissertation committee.

18 and 36 Credit Hour Review

The student's performance will be carefully monitored at 18 and 36 credit hours, respectively, after full admission to the Program. Less than satisfactory reviews may result in a modified program of study due to remedial course work, or dismissal from the program.

Students may develop their own specialization in areas of their choice relevant to Public Administration and Public Policy, such as Health Services Administration, Environmental Policy, Urban Planning, etc. All specializations are developed after consultation with and upon approval of the advisor and program director.

Comprehensive Examination

Subsequent to completion of course work, students are required to pass a two-part comprehensive examination. The first component of the comprehensive is a written examination testing for knowledge of the Ph.D. core and related material. The second component is the submission of a research deliverable that demonstrates competence in defining a research problem, and addressing that problem through empirical study.

Students who fail the Comprehensive Examination on the first attempt must retake the examination at its next offering. Students who fail the examination twice are automatically dismissed in accord with general University policy.

Dissertation: (24)

Upon successful completion of the comprehensive examination, students select their dissertation guidance committee and begin preparation of their dissertation proposal. Students are expected to defend their dissertation prospectus before the end of the first semester subsequent to passing the Comprehensive Examination.

Upon the public defense and approval of the proposal, the student will initiate formal work on the dissertation. During this time, the student is expected to make appropriate progress toward completing the dissertation, and to enroll continually (at least six credits per semester) until the degree is completed. Upon completion of the dissertation, candidates will formally defend the research at a meeting conducted by the Dissertation Committee.

The degree will be awarded upon a positive recommendation of the Committee and compliance with all policies and procedures required by the University.

Award of Master's Degree to Ph.D. Candidates: Under certain circumstances, individuals directly admitted into the Ph.D. program following completion of their bachelor's degree, may be awarded a master's degree in public administration. In order to be eligible, a student will need to complete 42 credits (39 credits with advance standing) in the master's program. Upon certification by the student's advisor that this requirement has been met, the Ph.D. committee will approve the award of the master's degree.

Certificates

The Program offers certificates in Human Resource Policy and Management and Public Management. Please refer to the Certificate section under the College for detailed information.

Course Descriptions

Definition of Prefixes

PAD-Public Administration; PAF-Public Affairs; PUP-Public Policy; URS-Urban and Regional Studies.

PAD 5041 Values and Technology in Modern Society (3). Surveys personal and societal value assumptions in the context of the technological society. Examines organizational-societal value structures, and the ways in which technology creates rapid change and new alternatives in values. Also interrelationship of the past, present and future is explored, through futurism and forecasting techniques.

PAD 5043 Government and Minority Group Relations (3). Explores the pressing contemporary issue of the relationship between government and minorities. Examines the clash between established institutional values and minority group values, and surveys remedial programs aimed at dealing with the problem. Comparative case studies will be used to analyze public agencies' internal relations with minorities (recruiting, selection, etc.), as well as their different responses to the minority groups they serve.

PAD 5256 Public Economics and Cost Benefit Analysis (3). This course provides the quantitative and qualitative tools and case material to solve allocation problems in the public sector. Applied microeconomic theory, welfare economics, and market and government failure are analyzed as are the public alternatives available. Benefit-cost analysis, the ethics of applied practice, and the important skills of communicating with decision makers are taught.

PAD 5416 Social Equity and Human Resource Management (3). The course deals with the human resource management issues arising from equity and affirmative action requirements in the workplace.

PAD 5427 Collective Bargaining in the Public Sector (3). The course deals with the nature and implications of collective bargaining for managers and employees in (and students of) public organizations. The course emphasizes similarities and differences between the private and public sectors, as they apply to collective bargaining.

PAD 5435 Administration and the Role of Women (3). The course is designed for women and men who are interested in moving into management positions, or who have done so and want to broaden their understanding of the changing role of women. Classes will allow for experimental as well as academic exploration of the issues. The course will also explore design, implementation, and evaluation of affirmative action programs.

PAD 5443 The Public Administrator and Media Relations (3). Surveys the government-mass communication media relationship, and then concentrates on the ways in which public managers handle media relations. Emphasis throughout is placed on questions of information-handling unique to public organizations, involving, for example, adherence to Florida's Sunshine Law and the Federal Freedom of Information Act.

PAD 5460 Productivity Improvement (3). Provides measures to improve organizational and worker productivity using applied behavioral science.

PAD 5616 Contracting and Managing Third Party Governments (3). Analyzes the legal foundations, administrative and economic characteristics of government instrumentalities as they are used to pursue public policy. Analyzes how and why different combinations of instrumentalities are used in different policy areas.

PAD 5660C Applied Legal Context of Public Administrators (3). An overview of constraints and latitude the legal system grants to public administrators and managers. Provides the applied legal information required to make effective decisions in the public sector.

PAD 5661C Management of Court-Agency Relations (3). Examines applied judicial-administrative relations with particular emphasis on administrative policymaking. Covers the legal, environmental, and political factors that influence administrative strategies of policy and program compliance.

PAD 5716 Management Support Systems in Public Organizations (3). The course examines a variety of computer-based management support applications used in public sector organizations. It also explores design and implementation issues endemic to the public sector.

PAD 5934 Contemporary Issues in Public Administration (3). An analysis of major conceptual issues currently facing public administrators. May be repeated.

PAD 6042 Democracy and the Administrative State (3). Juxtaposes the contemporary administrative condition of American government with the values of the democratic state. Different approaches to democracy - in practice as well as in theory - will be analyzed, and their implications for public organizations and individual administrators examined.

PAD 6053 Political, Social and Economic Context of Public Administration (3). Examines the context in which public organizations operate, stressing the relationship between such organizations and their multifaceted environment. Emphasis is on examining relevant social and cultural mores and patterns, political values and processes, governmental institutions, economic systems, resource availability, and other environmental factors currently significant to public organizations.

PAD 6056 The Practice of Public Management (3). This capstone course for the MPA Program will deploy skills, concepts, and knowledge acquired in previous course work in analytic exercises related to students' areas of specialization. Prerequisites: Completion of MPA Core; last semester of course work status.

PAD 6106 Organization Theory and Administrative Behavior (3). Historical perspective and philosophical foundations of contemporary and emerging organization theory and administrative behavior, with emphasis on concepts of administrative leadership, the organization's members and systems, group dynamics, socio-psychological aspects of organization and management.

PAD 6205 Public Financial Management (3). Capital asset administration, debt administration, revenue systems, public employee retirement programs, purchasing, inventorying, and risk management.

PAD 6224 Advanced Seminar in Public Budgeting (3). A review of the state of the art in public budgeting, emphasizing conceptual areas for significant research and appropriate methodological design for addressing them. Prerequisites: PAD 6227, PAD 6229, and PAD 6205.)

PAD 6225 Comparative Public Budgeting (3). Public budgeting is a common activity in all governments and international organizations. Covers the differences in budgeting and explores patterns implicit in those differences.

PAD 6227 Public Finance and the Budgetary Process (3). Examines the theory and practice of public budgeting and its relationship to the administrative processes of control, management and planning. Special emphasis will be given to the social balance question; the kinds and scope of government expenditures; the fiscal role of government in a mixed economy; sources of revenue available to government; administrative, political and institutional aspects of the budget and the budgetary process; and problems and trends in intergovernmental financial relations.

PAD 6229 Advanced Management Techniques (3). Explores quantitative revenue and expenditure models and other techniques which address public sector decision making under conditions of resource constraint. Prerequisites: PAD 5256, PAD 6205 or permission of the instructor.

PAD 6366 Policy and Program Implementation (3). This course examines and evaluates the legal, socio-political administrative factors influencing the implementation of public policy and programs. Prerequisite: PUP 6015. (S)

PAD 6437 Dynamics of Individual Growth (3). This course focuses on the importance of small group theory to the personal growth of the administrator, and the role of interpersonal abilities in effectively serving client groups. The course also deals with the expansion of the phenomenological world view of each student; and will look at existential theory and the dilemma of personal growth.

PAD 6605 Administrative Law and Procedures (3). Emphasizes the responsibilities public administrators have under local, state, and federal laws. Explores such concepts as client responsiveness under the law; the regulatory process; state administrative law systems; the executive order process; the relationship between administrative law and the checks-and-balances system; discretionary justice; and others.

PAD 6715 Public Monitoring Systems for Government Organizations (3). Focuses on the formal information system which is or can be used to guide a public organization and judge its performance.

PAD 6726 Applied Research Methods for Accountability in Public and Nonprofit Organizations (3). Tools, methods, and concepts employed to reengineer public and nonprofit agencies and to design performance indicators needed to enhance customer satisfaction and strategic service delivery. Prerequisite: URS 6155.

PAD 6807 Urban and Municipal Government Administration (3). Detailed examination of problems facing the municipal administrator; of the pressures upon the contemporary urban environment; and of the administration of large metropolitan areas comprised of numerous entities. Emphasis will be on determination of current trends, discussion of cases, and arrival at suggested solutions.)

PAD 6816 Regional and State Government Administration (3). Surveys the historical development of regional administration, analyzes present administrative problems of the states, and explores contemporary and suggested remedial policies. Emphasizes the complex problems of the institutional relationships among local, state and regional governments, and their implications for public policy-making.

PAD 6836 International Public Administration (3). The role of public administration systems around the world; and the impact of political and socio-cultural frameworks on administration. Focus on national and state organizations' politics, economics, problems, and possibilities. A review of scope and programs of contemporary international public administration organizations. Prerequisite: PAD 5256.

PAD 6838 Development Administration (3). The role of public administration in national development, with specific attention to theories of economic aid from external sources, and the effects of this aid. Theories and policies of economic and social development are explored; and particular attention is given to the role of the United States in strengthening administrative capabilities as an important means for achieving developmental goals in selected countries.

PAD 6839 Comparative Public Policy (3). This course addresses policy formulation and implementation as a general process of administrative action that can be investigated among the varying nation-states. It covers the differences in policy and explores patterns implicit in those differences. Prerequisites: PAD 6836 or PAD 6838.

PAD 6907 Independent Study in Public Administration (1-6). (Normally 3 credit hours) Individual conferences; supervised readings; reports on personal investigations and similar undertakings. Prerequisites: Completion of required courses in public administration is expected. Consent of faculty sponsor and Program Director required.

PAD 6915 Independent Research in Public Administration (1-6). (Normally 3 credit hours) An individualized research project and report which, if feasible, should include field work with a public organization. Prerequisites: Completion of required courses in public administration is expected. Consent of faculty sponsor and Program Director required.

PAD 6946 Public Administration Internship (1-6). (Normally 3 credit hours) Supervised work in a public or quasi-public organization. Should not be undertaken until completion of required courses in public administration program. Consent of faculty advisor and Program Director required.

PAD 7026 Proseminar in Public Administration and Policy (3). An intensive introduction to American Public Administration and Public Policy making and implementation by "The Fourth Branch" of government.

PAD 7055 Scope and Theory of Public Administration (3). An integrative capstone seminar in which traditional Models of Public Administration are explored and employed to analyze the structures and dynamics of public organizations and to develop alternative Models and new theoretical perspectives concerning the scope and theory of the field.

PAD 7102 Advanced Organization Theory (3). Philosophical foundations of contemporary organization theory, with emphasis on dynamic interfaces between the environmental contexts and organizations, critical analysis of both the normative and incremental orientation of concepts, theories, models, and applications. Prerequisites: PAD 6106 or equivalent.

PAD 7155 Organizational Development and Change in Public and Nonprofit Organizations (3). Explores the unique challenges to implementing effective management environments in public and nonprofit organizations. Emphasis on organizational diagnosis and the performance measures.

PAD 7257 Economic Context of Government (3). This course examines interdisciplinary approaches to collective decision making and the delivery of public goods and services. Prerequisite: PAD 5256.

PAD 7277 Public Administration and the American Political Economy (3). An analysis of the origins and growth of the American administrative state within the broader socioeconomic and cultural context, with particular emphasis on the post-World War II era.

PAD 7607 Legal Context of Public Administration (3). This course analyzes the administrative significance of delegation, judicial review, rule making, freedom of information and sunshine laws, legislative veto, and liability for administrators. Prerequisite: PAD 6053.

PAD 7702 Empirical Methods in Public Administration (3). An advanced research/seminar practicum focusing in the development of theoretical models relevant to public administration and analytical techniques for testing these models. Particular attention is paid to structural equation models and latent measures.

PAD 7705 Applied Quantitative Analysis (3). Application of selected multivariate statistical and quantitative models to the field of public administration. Prerequisite: URS 6155.

PAD 7707 Advanced Applied Research Methods (4). This course will provide students with an increased understanding of concepts of research methods through applied research projects related to public policy and public administration. Prerequisites: URS 6155 and URS 6806.

PAD 7808 Economic Development and Urban Management (3). Details the theory and practice of contemporary urban management, with particular emphasis on development of the economic base as a requisite in a competitive federal system.

PAD 7865 Development Administration (3). Policies and institutions fostering decentralization and the rise of civil society in less-developed nations; strategies for change and political, cultural, and economic drivers of progress.

PAD 7913 Comprehensive Examination in Public Administration (1-6). An in-depth review of the Public Administration knowledge base taken prior to sitting for the comprehensive examinations. May be repeated for credit. Prerequisite: Completion of Program of Studies.

PAD 7960 Comprehensive Examination in Public Administration (3). Intensive preparation for the comprehensive examinations in Public Administration in both the core and areas of specialization. Students may repeat for credit. Prerequisite: Completion of program of studies.
