SYLLABUS for SYD 3811: Sociology of Women

Description: This course is one of the women's studies courses focusing on the lives of females from a sociological perspective. We begin with the history of women's studies, focus on girlhood, and then proceed through issues of concern to women, including relationships between mothers and daughters. Are we in a post-feminist age? This course will help us answer that question.

Required Readings: The following texts can be purchased at the university bookstore, local book stores or on-line and they are all in paperback:

Lyn Mikel Brown, Girlfighting, New York University Press, 2003.
 Gwyn Kirk & Margo Okazawa-Rey, Women's Lives: Multicultural Perspectives, Fourth Edition, Mc-Graw Hill 2007.
 Deborah Tannen, You're Wearing That? Ballantine Books, 2006.

Recommended Readings:

Guerrilla Girls, Bitches, Bimbos and Ballbreakers, Penguin Books 2003.
 Marjane Satrapi, Persepolis: The Story of a Childhood, Pantheon 2003.
 Joni Seager, Women of the World Atlas, Penguin 2005.

Requirements: Successful completion of the following assignments done on time (assignments turned in late will not be accepted; no make-ups):

1. In class oral presentations of the required readings (4 worth 5 points each, 20 points total). If you are not here the date your reading is due, you will not receive points. Students can earn extra credit with extra presentations.
 2. Essay exam #1 on the readings (3 questions @ ten points each, 30 points)
 3. A research project presented to the class (20 points)
 4. Essay exam #2 on the readings (3 questions worth ten points each, 30 points)
- Final points add up to 100 possible (20+30+20+30=100)

NOTE: I do not accept emailed assignments. You must turn in a hard copy in class or in my box in the sociology department on the due date.
